We currently have ~14% fewer members this year (3,434) than last year (4,016) at this time. However, we have had 75 members join in the past 30 days.

The National Office published a new “COVID-19”-addressing waiver which applies to all member registration documents: Swimmer Membership, One Event Registration (OEV), Swim Meet Registration and Open Water Registration.

Members are continuing to contact me about pool openings, swim meets, open water events and National Championships.

Standard processing of registrations, transfers, membership cards and news emails.

If you need any registration request processed in less than 1 business day, follow up your email to me by calling and telling me your request needs to be processed urgently.
